

Periodic Table of Capital Bikeshare

Sept. 2010 to Present

Ca Capital Washington, D.C., the nation's capital, is a federal district that was formed in 1790 and named after both George Washington and Christopher Columbus.	Bi Bikeshare Capital Bikeshare offers 6,000 bikes and 700+ stations across 7 jurisdictions in the Metro D.C. area.	Eb Ebike The electric-assist bike that can be rented through Capital Bikeshare. It costs $0.15/min to ride and has a top speed of 18 mph.	Cl Classic Bike The regular bike that can be rented through Capital Bikeshare. It costs $0.05/minute to ride and has a range of gears.	An Annual Membership The plan that costs $95/year and includes unlimited 45-minute rides on classic bikes, reduced ebike rides, free unlocks, and other perks.	Dp Day Pass The plan that costs $6/day and includes unlimited 45-minute rides on classic bikes, no unlock fees, and a discounted rate of $0.10/min on ebikes.
Ly Lyft The app that can be used to unlock and ride Capital Bikeshare bikes. It also shows the availability of bikes and stations on the map.	Mo Motivate The subsidiary of Lyft that operates Capital Bikeshare and several other bikeshare systems across the U.S.	St Station The place where bikes can be picked up and returned. Each station has a kiosk, a map, and a docking station that releases bikes using a member key or a ride code.	Dt Dock The slot where bikes can be parked. Each dock has a lock-in light and a lock-release button.	Sr Single Ride The option that costs $1 to unlock plus $0.05/minute for classic bikes or $0.15/minutes for ebikes.	Ba Bike Angels The program that rewards riders who take bikes from crowded stations to empty stations. They earn points toward ebike credits, free membership extensions, and more.
Mp Map The tool that shows the location and availability of bikes and stations. It can be accessed through the Capital Bikeshare website or app.	Qr QR Code The barcode that can be scanned with the Capital Bikeshare or Lyft app to unlock a bike. It is located on the handlebar of each bike.	Mk Member Key The plastic card that can be used to unlock a bike. It can be ordered online by annual members or received at a station by day pass holders.	Lk Lock The mechanism that secures the bike to the dock. It can be unlocked by scanning a QR code, entering a ride code, or inserting a member key.	Rc Ride Code The five-digit number that can be used to unlock a bike. It can be obtained from the kiosk, the Capital Bikeshare app, or the Lyft app.	Cp Corral The designated area where bikes can be returned without docking at a station. It is usually available during peak hours or special events at high-demand locations.

Classification

Capital Elements

Bike Elements

Subscription Elements